

20 February, 2013

Agricultural Forecasts

January 31

Rainfall delays Autumn/Winter sowings

Early estimates on January 31 point to the maintenance of the winter cereals surface with delays in sowings caused by intense rainfall that forced the adjournment.

The severe storm that occurred on Jan. 19 on the Mainland caused costly losses, destroying crops and infrastructures. Due to the weather conditions that were felt throughout the olive grove growing cycle, the olive oil production.
