

22 October, 2014

Implicit interest rates in housing loans

September 2014

Interest rate continues to reduce with average of loans repayments stabilized

The implicit interest rate in all contracts of mortgage loans to households decreased 0.020 percentage points from the rate observed in the previous month, to 1.471% in September. The average loan repayments remained at €259.
