

23 December, 2014

Implicit interest rates in housing loans
November 2014

Interest rate and with average of loans repayments continued to decrease

The implicit interest rate in all contracts of mortgage loans to households decreased 0.038 percentage points from the rate observed in the previous month, to 1.401% in November. The average loan repayment stood at €256 (€258 in October).
