

Census 2011 - Provisional Results

We are more and still a country of immigration

We are older and possess a higher level of education

We live in smaller families

There are more dwellings for secondary use and vacant

Almost all the dwellings where we live have the basic infrastructures
