

In Portugal...

Maria and José met and started dating in 2011...

In 2012, on Valentine's day, José offered Maria, roses...

In 2015, it was Maria's turn to surprise José with a romantic dinner which ended with a delicious strawberries and chocolate dessert...

In 2016, they still sent each other many love letters and many love messages through smartphone... in the evening they celebrated Valentine's day with a wonderful portuguese wine... went to the cinema... and by the end of the day they decided to get married!

We hope they will be happy for many years!
