

Business Statistics Studies – High Growth Companies

2015-2017

GVA of High growth companies increased by 24.9% between 2015 and 2017

Between 2015 and 2017, the GVA of High growth companies increased by 24.9%, two times more than the growth registered for the total companies in this period (12.3%).

In the high growth companies, more than 40% of the GVA was generated by companies with an export profile, compared to 33.0% in the total companies.

In 2017, High Growth Companies generated on average a GVA per company of EUR 2,027.1 thousand, more than 7 times the value generated by High Growth Micro Companies.

High Growth Micro Companies recorded the highest investment rate in 2017, around 30%. Gazelles registered the highest debt levels, above 70%, and the largest share of personnel expenses in GVA (84.2%).
