INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION PRICES INDEX
September 2022

INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION PRICES GREW 19.6%

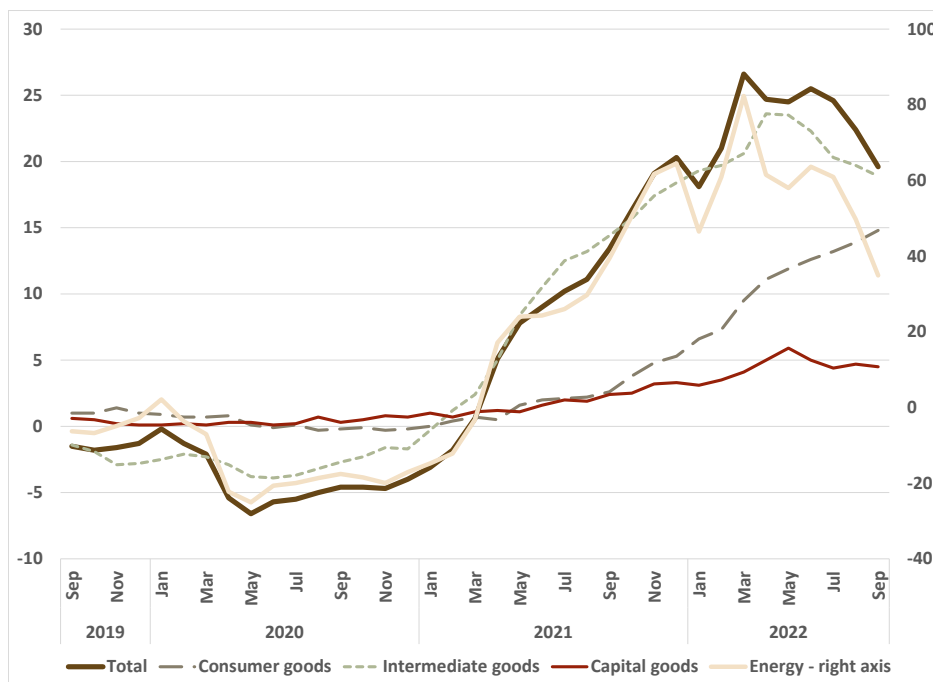

Industrial Production Prices Index presented a year-on-year change rate of 19.6% in September (22.4% in August). The evolution of this indicator remained strongly influenced by the evolution of prices of energy and raw materials. The Consumer Goods grouping, with a growth of 14.8%, was the only one to register an acceleration in the year-on-year change rate. Excluding the Energy grouping, prices in industry rose 15.3% (the same growth was observed in the last two months).

The monthly change rate of the total index was -0.2% (2.2% in September 2021).

In the 3rd quarter 2022, the prices on industrial production increased 22.2% (24.9% in the previous quarter).
