

AGRICULTURAL FORECASTS

October 2009

Dry October delays sowings

On 31 October early estimates point to a delay concerning the preliminary tasks for the next campaign. For the fresh fruits, the crop year was marked by an increase in production, unlike what was found in nuts, where only almonds presented a slight increase. Wine production has increased in about 10%, with high quality grape.

