

27 September, 2010

Interest rates implicit in housing loans

August 2010

Interest rate on housing loans increases again

The interest rate on housing loans was 1.840% in August, up by 0.023 percentage points from the previous month. The average loan repayments stood at €252, increasing €1 from July. The implicit interest rate on contracts signed over the last 3 months was 2.174% up by 0.059 percentage points from the previous month. For this period the average loan repayments increased €8, to €307.

