

Pádraig Dalton

Director General of the Central Statistics Office, Ireland

Pádraig Dalton was appointed to the role of Director General of the Central Statistics Office in May 2012.

Pádraig is a career statistician having joined the CSO in November 1991. Pádraig is a member of the European Statistical System Committee (ESSC) which provides professional guidance to the European Statistical System (ESS) for developing, producing and disseminating European Statistics.

Pádraig is also Chair of the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (UNECE) High Level Group for the Modernisation of Statistical Production and Services and is an ex-officio member of the National Statistics Board (NSB).