

Maria Eduarda Silva

President of the Portuguese Statistical Society

Associate Professor with habilitation at School of Economics, University of Porto.

Obtained her PhD from the University of Manchester in 1994.

Her main research areas are Time Series Analysis, Spatio-Temporal Models and Forecasting with application to: environment, biomedicine, economics, finance and geophysical processes.

Has supervised more than 20 Master students and 6 PhD students.

Serves as President of the Portuguese Statistical Society since 2015.