

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON COMPARATIVE EU STATISTICS ON INCOME AND LIVING CONDITIONS

Lisbon, Portugal
15-17 October

2014

Organised by Eurostat and the Second Network for the analysis of EU-SILC (Net-SILC2)
Hosted by Statistics Portugal (INE)

Conference held at
Banco de Portugal

> WORKSHOP ON BEST PRACTICES FOR EU-SILC REVISION

Lisbon, 15 October 2014

Venue: Museum of Banco de Portugal, Largo de S. Julião, nº 26

PROGRAMME (FINAL VERSION)

08:00-09:30

Registration and welcome coffee

09:30-10:10

Opening session – welcome and introduction

- Jean-Louis Mercy (Eurostat), Maria Leonor Pereira, Statistics Portugal (INE): Welcome Speech
- Didier Dupré and Emilio Di Meglio (Eurostat): EU-SILC revision – Purpose of the workshop

10:10-10:50

Keynote address

- Marcel Das (CentERdata & Tilburg University)
Innovation in online longitudinal data collection for scientific research: the Dutch LISS panel

10:50-11:30

Session 1 – Longitudinal component

- Cédric Houdré (INSEE)
Moving to a longer panel in EU-SILC: Insights from the 9-year panel in France
- Matthew Minifie, Richard Tonkin (ONS)
Current methods and future proposals for minimising attrition in longitudinal UK-SILC

11:30-12:30

Session 2 – Modes of data collection

- Jarl Quitzau (Statistics Denmark)
The Danish Cawi experience
- Cristina Freguja, M.C. Romano, Silvano Vitaletti (ISTAT)
Italian experiences in changing survey modes
- Urve Kask (Statistics Estonia)
Creation of the income variable from administrative data sources

12:30-14:00

Workshop lunch

14:00-14:45

Special session – Regionalization

- Pascal Ardilly (INSEE)
Regional estimates of poverty indicators based on a calibration technique

14:45-16:05

Session 3 – Timeliness

- Peter Elmer Lauritsen, Jarl Quitzau (Statistics Denmark)
Usage of provisional income registers in Denmark
- Marie Reijo (Statistics Finland)
Essential phases of register-based survey processing concerning timeliness
- Šárka Šustová (Czech Statistical Office)
Comparison of preliminary and final data
- Vítor Junqueira, Esperança Figueiredo, Eduarda Góis (INE) and Carlos Farinha Rodrigues (INE Consultant)
Using microsimulation in EU-SILC to compute At-Risk-Of-Poverty rate early estimates

16:05-16:25

Coffee break

16:25-17:25

Session 4 – Methodology

- Richard Heuberger, Nadja Lamei (Statistics Austria)
Disaggregation of benefits and pensions variables
- G. Donatiello, D. Frattarola, A. Rizzi, M. Spaziani (ISTAT)
Statistical matching of IT-SILC and HBS: some critical issues
- Pierre Lavallée (Statistics Canada) and Eduarda Góis (INE) co-speakers, Carlos Marcelo (INE) and Carlos Farinha Rodrigues (INE Consultant)
Comparing the outcomes of multiple imputation and MS

17:25-18:00

Conclusive panel: way forward for EU-SILC revision

- Cristina Freguja ISTAT (Italy)
- Eduarda Góis INE (Portugal)
- Cédric Houdré INSEE (France)
- Šárka Šustová CZSO (Czech Republic)
- Richard Tonkin ONS (United Kingdom)

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON
COMPARATIVE EU
STATISTICS ON INCOME AND
LIVING CONDITIONS

Lisbon, Portugal
15-17 October

2014

INSTITUTO NACIONAL DE ESTATÍSTICA
STATISTICS PORTUGAL

eurostat

