

Giovanni A. Barbieri, a regional economist by training and by passion, has been a free-lance in applied economics and a professional user of statistics since 1977, before moving to ISTAT (Statistics Italy) in 1994.

After managing for many years the areas of structural business statistics, external trade, consumer prices, agriculture, users' needs, integration, dissemination, and territory, he is currently in the Presidency staff. He is vice Chair of the Working Party on Territorial Indicators in OECD.

Giovanni A. Barbieri

Presidency Staff
ISTAT – Statistics Italy