

Joaquim Oliveira Martins is the Head of the OECD Regional Development Policy Division where he supervises projects on regional and urban development, multi-level governance, regional statistics and well-being. He was former Head of the OECD Structural Economic Statistics Division, where he developed Trade & Globalisation studies, Productivity measurement and Business statistics. He was also Senior Economist at the OECD Economics Department.

Among many OECD publications, he coordinated and authored reports on Competition, Regulation and Performance, Policy Response to the Threat of Global Warming, Health Expenditure Projections, Investment in Tertiary Education and Ageing & Growth. As Head of Desk for Emerging markets, he was in charge of the first Economic Surveys of Brazil, Chile and several transition countries. Before the OECD, he was Research Fellow at the Centre d'Etudes Prospectives et d'Informations Internationales (CEPII, Paris). He holds a PhD in Economics from the University of Paris-I, Panthéon-Sorbonne, and is currently Associate Professor at the University of Paris-Dauphine.

Joaquim Oliveira Martins
Head of the Regional Development
Policy Division – OECD