

Mário Vale has a PhD Degree in Human Geography (1999) from the University of Lisbon. He is currently a Full Professor at the Institute of Geography and Spatial Planning and he is the Director of the Centre for Geographical Studies at the University of Lisbon.

He was a Fulbright Visiting Scholar at the Department of Geography at UCLA (University of California Los Angeles) in 2013. Research topics have focused on critical issues of the internationalization, innovation and regional development policies in European regions, supported by national and international research projects. He was President of the Portuguese Association of Geographers (2004-2008) and Vice-Chair of the Regional Studies Association (2008-2011). Currently he is a Fellow of the Regional Studies Association.

Mário Vale

Director of the Centre for Geographical Studies
University of Lisbon